

FRIENDSHIPS IN EXCITING ELECTION PICK TREASURER

Firemen Vote Two Hours Between Former President and Present Secretary

EDWARD F. LEINBACH

John W. Morrison Chosen Secretary Again, Adding to His Already Long Record

The Friendship Fire Company, at an exciting election Friday evening, chose officers. The balloting continued from 9 o'clock to 10.45 and 93 votes were cast. The chief contest was for treasurer, in which Huron L. Huyett, former president, ran against Edward F. Leinbach, assistant secretary. Mr. Leinbach won. Several applications were received. The new officers are: President, Ledan M. Conkling; vice president, Martin Mohn; secretary, John W. Morrison, for the 34th term; assistant, William B. Moore; treasurer, Edward F. Leinbach; trustee three years, Charles B. Ege; librarians, Michael P. Schneider, Arthur I. Heller; foreman, A. Hugh Bard; these directors, Fred H. Cranston, James Faust, Jacob Firestone, Ledan Conkling, Paul A. Printz, Harry Dease; board of engineers, George Weber, George W. Schaeffer, Henry L. Ho- man, Elmer L. Woodward, Thomas G. Printz, F. P. Goodman, George P. Dease; engine driver, Howard Grove; wagon driver, Howard F. Brehm.

AMERICANS IN